PRESS RELEASE

November 12th, 2013

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS MEETING

The Town Council is organising a special informal Christmas Open Meeting for everyone to come along and express their views about Town issues.

Town and District Councillors will be present together with other organisations and community groups.

There will not be any formal business. Everyone is free to come along from 7pm until 9pm to speak to Councillors and the other groups present in an informal setting. Refreshments will be provided.

Comments relative to Town Council issues will be noted by the Councillors present and these will be brought to the appropriate meetings.

Various Community groups such as are being invited to have 'stands' at the meeting for advice and information. Any groups which would like to have a table – please contact the Town Council offices.

The evening will start at 7pm on Wednesday December 18th at the Source, and all are welcome.

Further details will be issued nearer the time.

Shelagh McIntyre, Clerk.
